Messaging

1. Messaging Foundation

What is Alpha?

Alpha is an open, welcoming space where people explore life, faith, and meaning together.
We create environments that feel warm, human, and honest – where meaningful conversations naturally happen.

Our communication mirrors this: inviting, clear, human, curious, and grounded in real experiences.

---

2. Brand Values

Our brand feels like being in a great Alpha small group. We reflect the experience of Alpha through our brand expression.

Brand Values

Inviting
People feel welcomed and included from the first interaction.

Informal
Alpha feels relaxed and conversational, not corporate.

Human
Empathetic, relatable, real. Everyday language. Everyday people.

Open
We're transparent, genuine, and accessible to anyone exploring faith.

Engaging
Curiosity, storytelling, and dialogue drive our approach.

3. Verbal Identity and Tone of Voice

Our voice sets the tone for how our audience engages with us, from social posts to small group conversations .

Human

We are
We are down-to-earth. We help our audience feel at home. We are empathetic and imperfect. We are relatable and friendly.

We are not
We are not superior. We don't use Christian jargon or language that alienates or confuses our readers. We are not corporate or cold.

Engaging

We are
We are storytellers. We are confident, interesting, and playful. We listen and ask questions. We bring people into the conversation.

We are not
We are not preachy. We are not judgemental. We are not detached or aloof. We are not boring or dry. We do not speak without listening.

Open

We are
We are up-front. What you see is what you get. We are for everyone. We're open-hearted and open-minded. We offer an open invite.

We are not
We are not exclusive. We are not cliquey. We don't disguise who we are. We don't spin or sugar-coat. No one is left out.

4. Core Brand Narrative

Alpha creates space for people to explore life, faith, and meaning through conversation.
Everyone is welcome. Every question matters.
It's a shared journey, shaped by real people and honest dialogue.

This is the backbone for all markets and channels.

5. Audience Messaging

A. Guest-Facing Messaging

Purpose
Invite people with clarity and curiosity.
Help anyone – regardless of background or familiarity with faith – understand what Alpha is and why it might matter to them.

Principles
Lead with clarity: define Alpha early.
Explain the format: hospitality, conversation, connection.
Embrace curiosity: possibility, imagination, big questions.
Highlight the shared experience: food, people, stories.
Use relatable, all-ages language (not just Gen Z-leaning).
Use real stories and imagery of real people.

Explaining what Alpha is to guests
Alpha is an experience that unpacks the basics of the Christian faith in an open, friendly environment. It's for anyone who's curious, no matter their beliefs or background.
We help make spaces where people can freely explore the basics of the Christian faith together.

Sample Guest Lines

- An open invitation to open conversations.
- Unpack the Christian faith together.
- Alpha is a place to explore life and faith.
- Discover meaningful conversations in a relaxed, welcoming environment.
- Bring your thoughts. Bring your story. Join the conversation.
- Explore what the Christian faith could mean for you.
- Questions welcome. Always.
- Life's complicated – want to talk about it?
- Come along, see what you think.
- Alpha runs all around the world, it's free and everyone's invited.
- Last year, over 2 million people tried Alpha.
- Meet new people, watch a talk, share your thoughts.
- A safe space to hear from others and share your thoughts.

B. Church- and Leader-Facing Messaging

Purpose
Inspire and equip churches to run Alpha with a clear sense of mission, impact, and simplicity.

Principles
Lead with vision and purpose, not logistics.
Highlight Alpha as part of a wider culture of welcome and discipleship.
Use contextual hooks ("a great next step after Easter," etc.).
Emphasize accessibility for newcomers and seekers.
Reinforce partnership, shared mission, and spiritual impact.

Explaining what Alpha is to churches and leaders
Alpha helps you to create spaces where people can freely explore the basics of the Christian faith together.

Alpha provides talks, tools, and training (for free) that help people around the world connect with their local communities – so they can share the good news in a good way. It helps you to offer your community an experience that unpacks the basics of the Christian faith in an open, friendly environment.

Sample Church- and Leader-Facing Lines

- Alpha helps your church create space for meaningful exploration and conversation.
- A simple, relational environment where people can discover Christian faith at their own pace.
- Alpha supports your mission to reach those who are curious about life and faith.
- A catalyst for hospitality, invitation, and community-building.

C. Donor Facing Messing

Purpose
Inviting partnership with Alpha's vision and mission through generosity and connecting this generosity to tangible impact, shared vision, and spiritual significance.

Principles
- Lead with vision: changed lives, global reach, gospel impact.
- Link story impact to the vision – i.e. changed lives, church revitalisation (through using Alpha), and societal transformation.
- Ground claims in real proof: stories, numbers, outcomes.
- Affirm the spiritual value of generosity.
- Position donors as partners, not observers.
- Segment clearly – social channels should be prioritised for guest-facing content, and donor language used sparingly
- For general, public-facing channels (e.g. a website), the donor messaging "voice" should never be louder than the guest- or church-facing voice. Trying and running Alpha come first; giving comes after these.

Explaining what Alpha is to donors
Alpha helps everyone, everywhere explore faith and encounter Jesus. At Alpha, we believe everyone deserves the chance to explore faith and discover Jesus – for free. By 2033, we hope to offer this life-changing opportunity to everyone on the planet as we look towards the 2000th anniversary of Jesus' death and resurrection.

Sample Donor Lines

- Your generosity helps people everywhere explore the hope of Jesus.
- Together, we're creating spaces where thousands can ask meaningful questions about faith.
- Your gift made it possible for ___ people to explore Christian faith last year.
- Thank you for being part of this global movement.

---

6. Social Media Messaging Principles (Guest-Facing Only)

Social channels are one of Alpha's most important windows for guests.
These platforms should speak directly to people exploring faith – not to churches, not to leaders, not to insiders.

The Posture:

- Conversational, modern, curious
- Warm, relatable, human
- Never "churchy" or institutional
- Never assuming Christian knowledge
- Always grounded in real people and real questions
- Designed to feel like an invitation to explore, not a programme announcement

The Content:

- Questions that spark curiosity
- Real story snippets
- Honest reflections from guests and hosts
- Clips or quotes that feel social-first, not promotional
- Clear, simple explanations of what Alpha is and what to expect
- Inclusive imagery across age, ethnicity, background, and personality

The Tone:

- Think of social as speaking to someone who is:
- Browsing
- Curious
- Open-minded but not informed
- Not necessarily part of a church community

Sample Social Lines

- Ever wondered about the big questions in life?
- What would you ask if you could ask anything about faith?
- Real people. Real conversations. Real questions.
- Curious about Christian faith? Alpha is a place to explore it.
- A meal. A group. A conversation that matters.

---

7. Practical Writing Guidance (All Channels)

- Say less. Keep copy spacious and confident.
- Use clear, everyday language.
- Lead with curiosity rather than conclusions.
- Reflect real people and real stories.
- Avoid insider language or assumptions.
- Let visuals show the Alpha experience; let words give clarity.

---

8. One-Sentence Summary

Alpha is an open, welcoming space to explore life, faith, and meaning through conversation – shaped by hospitality, community, and curiosity.